NICOLE STRATTON

ACTOR & DIRECTOR

THE LOGOS THEATRE IS EXCITED TO ANNOUNCE THAT OUR ARTISTIC DIRECTOR, NICOLE STRATTON, WILL BE OFFERING WEEKLY LESSONS FOR THE GENERAL PUBLIC IN ACTING AND WRITING THIS MARCH 9 - MAY 4!

If you have seen her work at the Logos Theatre, you know the amazing opportunity these lessons afford to all who attend! The acting class will be designed to take you to the next level in character development, how to audition, vocal control and flexibility, movement on stage, and the art of acting with someone, rather than at them. Nicole is so excited to work with serious students who wish to use the teaching, exercises and hands-on stage time that she can provide to take their acting skills to a whole new level!

The writing classes are somewhat of a favorite for Nicole and after working on so many new and successful scripts, she is anxious to impart her knowledge and experience in this field to dedicated, up-and-coming writers! The need for writers in this field is immense and so, it is her hope that through this class, new writers will emerge that can begin to write exciting, powerful and philosophically sound scripts for the stage and film!
